

Name of the Doctor:

Dr. Ajaya Kashyap

Qualification:

Diplomate American Board - General Surgery

Diplomate American Board - Plastic Surgery

Masters in Surgery, Delhi University, India – June 1988

MBBS, Maulana Azad Medical College, New Delhi, India - 1983

Speciality: Plastic and Reconstructive Specialist / Cosmetic Surgery

Brief Profile:

Dr. Ajaya Kashyap is currently with Fortis La Femme Hospital as Chief of Plastic, Reconstructive and Breast Surgery. Dr. Kashyap is India's only double American Board certified surgeon - Diplomat American Board of Plastic Surgery and Diplomat American Board of General Surgery. He recently (May 2005) moved to New Delhi after 16 years of practicing medicine in the U.S.A., spending the last ten years in the Greater Boston area in Massachusetts. He had a very successful private Plastic Surgery practice with staff privileges at Metrowest Medical Center, U-Mass-Memorial Marlborough Hospital, Leonard-Morse Hospital in Natick and Nashoba Valley Medical Center. His wide spectrum of patients came from various parts of the US and abroad. He had an academic appointment as Assistant Professor at University of Massachusetts Medical School. Dr. Kashyap has been the medical director of Aesthetic Center at Metrowest since 2001 and was the attending plastic surgeon at The Wound Clinic in Framingham, Massachusetts.

Professional Membership / Professional Affiliations / Professional Societies:

FACS (Fellow of American College of Surgeons)

Active Member of the American Society of Plastic Surgery

Member of the American Medical Association

Member of Massachusetts Medical Society

EXPERIENCE:

Dr. Kashyap completed his fellowship in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at University of Massachusetts Medical Center, Massachusetts, U.S.A., following completion of a surgical residency at Robert Packer Hospital (Guthrie Clinic), Sayre, Pennsylvania, and Surgical Research at UCLA. Dr. Kashyap has received several distinctive awards for his outstanding research and excellence in academia, including obtaining the highest score nationally (United States) on the annual in-service examination in his final surgical residency year.

Dr. Ajaya Kashyap has done extensive research in the field of surgery and plastic surgery. He has published and presented over 35 research papers nationally (U.S.) and internationally. He has also contributed a book chapter in a leading plastic surgery academic textbook, Plastic Surgery: Indications, Operations, Outcomes, Vol. 2, Mosby, Inc., 2000

HONORS & AWARDS:

Diplomate by Fundase, Fundacion Servicios para el Ecuador: for Reconstructive Surgery

Resident of the Year (Robert Packer Hospital and Guthrie Clinic) – 1995

Best Teaching Resident (Robert Packer Hospital and Guthrie Clinic) – 1995

Stanley Conklin Award for Research (First Prize – Basic Science) - 1994

Stanley Conklin Award for Research (First Prize – Clinical Science) – 1994

Pennsylvania Trauma Committee Award for Paper Presentation – 1993

Stanley Conklin Award for Research (First Prize) – 1992

Sahitya Kala Parishad Award for Playwriting – 1982

First Prize for Sculpture at Phoenix All-India Youth Festival – 1981

Science Talent Search Scholar – All India Science Talent Search Scholarship – 1977